"This Uco Valley Malbec feels pure, direct and linear. Blackberry and dry spice flavors finish full and grabby, with muscularity. Buy now. Drink through 2028." - Wine Enthusiast, Nov. 2018

ABOUT TOP 100 CELLAR SELECTIONS

Each year, only 4% of the 23,000 wines reviewed are designated Cellar Selections—wines that, while currently delicious, would benefit from being forgotten for some time in a cool, dark place in your home.

This elite grouping is further whittled down to the Top 100 Cellar Selections list, a veritable cheat sheet for the most cellar-worthy wines on the market. This list hits some of the most collectable wines in the world.

So seek these beauties out, stash them in your cellar and reap the benefits of a delicious pour in the years to come.
